Welcome to Toutainville, Normandy

CLUB NAUTIQUE de TOUTAINVILLE

Bienvenue en Normandie

Toutainville – Pont-Audemer

In the heart of Normandy

The Nautical Club of Toutainville is located in the beautiful area of the lakes of Toutainville - Pont-Audemer, in the heart of Normandy, near the coast of the Channel, 150 km west from Paris, between Rouen and Le Havre.

Toutainville is a village of 1000 inhabitants.

The “Little Norman Venice”

Pont-Audemer is a small atypical city of more than 10,000 inhabitants, known as the "Little Norman Venice". This is a town that has retained this very special charm, a mix of streams, little streets, middle-class houses and Norman buildings that you discover by following the town center's historic trail and discover its old and modern heritage: the unfinished Saint-Ouen church, the cobblestoned lace of the Place du Pot d'Etain.

The Nautical Club of Toutainville

A superb lake and great infrastructures

The Nautical Club of Toutainville is installed on the edge of a lake of 30 hectares. It has excellent facilities and the conditions for water skiing and wakeboarding are just amazing!

A dynamic, experienced and passionate team of volunteers

The Nautical Club of Toutainville is a sports association born in 1979. It will celebrate its 40 years next year.

It is led by a remarkable team of volunteers, dynamic, experienced especially passionate.
